

Education Policy & Curriculum Specialist

Location: Delhi

Timeline: November 2021– October 2022

Nature of the engagement: Full-time Consultancy

Scope of Work

The Education Policy & Curriculum Specialist will work directly with Dr. Dhir Jhingran, Founder and Executive Director of Language and Learning Foundation. The academic research and writing work will focus on the new National Education Policy 2020 (NEP 2020) and supporting the development of new National Curricular Frameworks (under NEP 2020).

Language and Learning Foundation (LLF) is represented in several national and state level committees and working groups relating to the new National Education Policy, 2020 Early childhood education and foundational learning, curriculum and pedagogy etc. Dr. Dhir Jhingran, Founder and Executive Director of LLF is a member of the recently constituted National Steering Committee on development of National Curriculum Frameworks (NCFs). This position will assist LLF on academic work relating to education policy, foundational learning and curriculum development. The scope of work would include:

- Desk research of policy documents related to NEP 2020, teacher education, curriculum and pedagogy, multilingual education.
- Secondary research to develop base documents and discussion papers for discussion in National and State level working groups and the National Steering Committee for development of NCFs
- Development of academic papers relating to LLF's positions on teacher education, curriculum and pedagogy, multilingual education, assessments etc.

Qualifications, Skills, and Abilities:

- Master's degree in education. PhD. is preferred
- 3-5 years of experience in curriculum development, pedagogy, teacher education etc.
- Strong understanding of the NEP 2020, NIPUN Bharat program and NCF.
- Excellent drafting skills in English for technical concept notes
- Excellent presentation, communication and writing skills in English
- Strong in MS Office (Excel, Word, Power Point, etc.) and computer skills

Desired Qualities:

- Good understanding of policies regarding early grade literacy and language development (ELL) and multilingual education (MLE), teacher education, curriculum and pedagogy.
- Ability to manage multiple tasks at a time

Compensation:

A consolidated monthly fee will be paid (inclusive of applicable taxes).

Interested candidates may please apply to shabnam.parveen@languageandlearningfoundation.org by 5th November 2021 with latest CV.